English Listening and Speaking Patterns helps students develop aural and oral fluency through engaging content and practical exercises. The book takes a systematic, step-by-step approach, and the content and exercises put the tools of the language into students’ hands as they learn the patterns used in daily life.

Units are thematically structured, including topics which frequently appear in daily conversations. There are topics related to our personal lives (ex: family, friends, feelings), our interests (ex: music, movies, shopping), common discussion topics (ex: weather, Internet, the future), and so on.

Each unit starts with two Warm-up Questions. One of them asks students to consider the photo on the page, which enables the use of visual cues to develop fluency. The other is a question about the unit’s topic.

Next on the page is a Vocabulary Preview box. These words and phrases, which are related to the unit’s topic, are recorded on the audio CD, with the track number indicated next to the CD icon. Below the preview box is a Vocabulary Warm-up exercise which can be completed at home or in class.
Part II Listening Patterns

A. Dictation
Track 3

Matt and Aya are talking about their families. Listen to the first part of their conversation. Fill in the missing words.

Matt: Do you have a big family, Aya?

Aya: Not ( ). I just have one ( ) brother. How about you?

Matt: Actually, my family is really big. I have three brothers and ( ) sisters. And I have lots of aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Aya: Wow! So do you live with your ( )?

Matt: Not anymore. These days I share an apartment with one of my brothers.

B. Comprehension Check
Track 4

Now listen to the whole conversation and answer the questions.

1. How many brothers and sisters does Matt have?
   A: One
   B: Two
   C: Three
   D: Five

2. Who does Matt live with?
   A: His parents
   B: His sisters
   C: His brother
   D: His friend

3. Where does Aya's family usually hold reunions?
   A: At a park
   B: At a relative's house
   C: At a big restaurant
   D: At her uncle's hotel

Next, there is a Comprehension Check for which students hear the entire dialogue. There are three comprehension questions which students should answer after listening to the conversation. The audio CD contains the recording for both of these exercises, with the track number indicated next to each CD icon.
On the third page of each unit, students begin building speaking skills. First, two Usage Patterns are presented. These patterns represent common conversation functions, such as expressing opinions, stating goals, and so on. For each pattern, students are given a set of material to consider. That is followed by two examples in which the target pattern is used.

A. Usage Patterns

Here are some ways to respond positively.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Sure.</th>
<th>Definitely.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I sure do/am.</td>
<td>Without a doubt.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Example 1

A: Would you ever consider adopting a child?
B: Sure.

Example 2

A: Are you planning to invite George to the wedding?
B: Definitely. He's one of my best friends.

Here are some ways to respond negatively.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Not really.</th>
<th>I can't say that I do/am.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I don't think so.</td>
<td>I wouldn't say so.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Example 1

A: Do you think old people should live in retirement homes?
B: I don't think so.

Example 2

A: Is it best to move out of one's parents' house after college?
B: I wouldn't say so.

B. Practice It

Working in pairs, take turns asking the following questions. Answer using one of the above phrases.

1. A: Would you ever consider adopting a child?
   B: _______________

2. A: Do you think old people should live in retirement homes?
   B: _______________

3. A: If a husband and wife are unhappy, should they get divorced?
   B: _______________

Once students have finished studying this material, they are ready to move on to the Practice It exercise. Here, several questions or statements are presented. Students should provide their own responses, using one of the patterns they have just studied. This exercise can be done in pairs or as a class, or students can complete the task by themselves.
Listen to these questions and answers. Then, practice them yourself.

1. Do you have any brothers or sisters?
   - I have one older brother and one younger sister.
   - No, it's just me.

2. Do any of your grandparents or other relatives live with you?
   - Actually, yes. My grandmother lives with us.
   - No, it's just my parents and me.

3. When do you have family reunions?
   - We have reunions on the big holidays, like New Year's.
   - Fairly often, actually. We have a big dinner once a month.

4. Do you get along with all your relatives?
   - Sure, we all get along well.
   - Mostly, yes. But I have a cousin I don't like very much.

Now, pair up with a classmate. Practice the following conversation. Fill in the blanks with your own answers.

A: So, tell me about your family. Do you have any brothers or sisters?
B: Actually, I ______________. Is it just you guys, or do any relatives live with you? You know, like grandparents?
A: Well, at this time, ______________. So, do you get along with all your relatives?
B: To tell the truth, ______________.
About the Series

English Listening and Speaking Patterns is a three-level series. Vocabulary and grammar levels, as well as sentence lengths, are carefully controlled throughout each book. From Book 1 (Introductory) to Book 2 (High-Beginning) to Book 3 (Intermediate), the language level becomes incrementally higher.

In each book, the topics covered in all 20 units are the same. For example, “Family” is the Unit 1 topic in Books 1, 2, and 3. However, the target vocabulary, exercises, conversations, usage patterns, and discussion questions are different in every book. On top of that, from book to book, the exercises become more complex, challenging, and thought provoking.

This series structure has a number of benefits. For a school with multiple classes at different levels, each class can use the book that’s appropriate for its students. Week to week, all the classes will be covering the same types of topics and exercises, allowing for consistency and efficiency throughout the program. Since the books are leveled, a student completing one book can seamlessly move on to the next one. What’s more, because the content is completely different in each book, students progressing through the series will explore the topics in increasingly sophisticated and engaging ways.
